NO. : SUPERIOR COURT
NOEMI SOTO : JUDICIAL DISTRICT OF NEW BRITAIN
VS : AT NEW BRITAIN
STATE OF CONNECTICUT : NOVEMBER 7, 2022

COMPLAINT & REQUEST FOR DECLARATORY JUDGEMENT

Authority:

I, Noemi Soto, the named Plaintiff, am seeking declaratory relief pursuant to CGS Sec. 9-371b¹. Whereas, I am a person claiming to have been aggrieved by rulings made from election officials in connection with a referendum. Declaratory Judgment is being sought in accordance with CT PB Sec. 17-55. Whereas,

- (1) By the act of amending the Connecticut Constitution I am in danger of losing substantial rights, power and privilege over ballot security and election integrity.
- (2) There is an actual bona fide and substantial question or issue in dispute or substantial uncertainty of legal relations which requires settlement between the parties.
- (3) And there is no other form of proceeding that can provide immediate redress.

COMPLAINT

A) The Connecticut General Assembly (CGA) did grossly error in the enacting of Public Act 21-1, also known as, House Joint Resolution No. 59, Resolution Act No. 21-1, RESOLUTION APPROVING AN AMENDMENT TO THE STATE CONSTITUTION TO ALLOW FOR EARLY VOTING (HJ-59).

B) Due Process for the Act was not adhered to in accordance with the governing authority, Article Sixth of the Amendments to the Constitutionⁱⁱ which states that:

“Amendments to this constitution may be proposed by any member of the senate or house of representatives. An amendment so proposed, approved upon roll call by a yea vote of at least a majority, but by less than three-fourths, of the total membership of each house, shall be published with the laws which may have been passed at the same session and be continued to the regular session of the general assembly elected at the next general election to be held on the Tuesday after the first Monday of November in an even-numbered year.”

C) The Referendum Constitutional Question in association with HJ-59, under the designation of “Shall the Constitution of the State be amended to permit the General Assembly to provide for early voting?”, will not only permit early voting, but will also remove the Constitutional requirement to submit election results to the Secretary of State under seal.

D) In violation of CGS Sec. 2-18ⁱⁱⁱ, the Referendum Constitutional Question in association with HJ-59 fails to end with a statement of the intended objective addressed by the amendment. The amendment proposed addresses two distinctly separate and substantially material objectives; the first objective is to provide by law for early voting; the second is to remove the requirement for providing election results to the Secretary of State “under seal”. The Referendum Constitutional Question violates CGS Sec. 2-18 because it ends with a statement for only one of the intended objectives that is addressed by the proposed amendment.

STATEMENTS OF FACTS

- (1) In Session Year 2019, RESOLUTION PROPOSING A STATE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO PERMIT EARLY VOTING, S.J. No. 14 (SJ-14), was introduced by the Government Administration and Elections Committee.
- (2) No Roll Call Vote Tally record is evidenced in the Bill History of SJ-14 for the House nor the Senate. The only voting record noted is the Committee Vote Tally.
- (3) 2021-02-17, In Session Year 2021, RESOLUTION APPROVING AN AMENDMENT TO THE STATE CONSTITUTION TO ALLOW FOR EARLY VOTING, HJ-59, was introduced by the Government Administration and Elections Committee.
- (4) SJ-14 and HJ-59 are not integrally the same. In SJ-14, no brackets are enclosed to indicate any intent to remove any of the “under seal” provisions within the constitutional text. Under HJ-59 however, the brackets are introduced to schedule the removal of “under seal” provisions in addition to all the other amendments introduced with SJ-14. Because the two bills are substantially different, no claim can be made that HJ-59 is a continuation of SJ-14.
- (5) HJ-59 was introduced in the 2021 Session and passed by at least three-fourths of the total membership of the House, but by less than three-fourths of the total membership of the Senate. In Accordance with Article Sixth of the Amendments to the Constitution:

“An amendment so proposed, approved upon roll call by a yea vote of at least a majority, but by less than three-fourths, of the total membership of each house, shall be published with the laws which may have been passed at the same session and be continued to the regular session of the general assembly elected at the next general election to be held on the Tuesday after the first Monday of November in an even-numbered year.”

- (6) Under Article Sixth of the Amendments to the Constitution there is a provision that permits for an amendment that was continued from the previous general assembly and that is “again approved” by at least a majority of the total membership of each house, to be presented to the electors but that provision can not be correctly applied due to the material fact that HJ-59 is not a continuation of any bill previously approved by the general assembly.

- (7) HJ-59 was erroneously considered approved by the CGA under the instruction that they only needed “at least a majority of the total membership of each house”.
- (8) The designated question for the approved bill and Public Act at issue is currently on the November 8, 2022 ballot.

STATEMENT OF REMEDY

A) Plaintiff believes that the Referendum Question, “Shall the Constitution of the State be amended to permit the General Assembly to provide for early voting?”, was unlawfully approved to be on the ballot for November 8, 2022, this election year, and as a result, Public Act 21-1, RA 21-1, HJ-59 and any and all resulting effect in association, should be declared legally null and void in their entirety.

B) Plaintiff also believes that the volume and severity of the errors committed by the members and staff of the CGA are sufficient to conclude gross negligence on parties directly responsible for the drafting, approval, and legal interpretation of contingent Constitutional and statutory authority used to process HJ-59. Plaintiff seeks a declaratory judgment that either affirms or rejects this belief for the purpose of determining whether or not culpability can be reasonably applied to any or the allegation made in this complaint.

I, Noemi Soto, do solemnly swear that the statements contained herein are true to the best of my knowledge and belief, so help me God.

ⁱ Sec. 9-371b. Rulings by election officials re referendum. Complaints to Superior Court. Time limitation. Notice to Secretary of the State and State Elections Enforcement Commission. Hearing. Orders. ~~Any person (1) claiming to have been aggrieved by any ruling of any election official in connection with a referendum, (2) claiming that there has been a mistake in the count of votes cast for a referendum, or (3) claiming to be aggrieved by a violation of any provision of section 9-355, 9-357 to 9-361, inclusive, 9-364, 9-364a or 9-365 in the casting of absentee ballots at a referendum, may bring a complaint to any judge of the Superior Court for relief from such ruling, mistake or violation.~~ In any action brought pursuant to the provisions of this section, the complainant shall send a copy of the complaint by first class mail, or deliver a copy of the complaint by hand, to the State Elections Enforcement Commission. If such complaint is made prior to such referendum, such judge shall proceed expeditiously to render judgment on the complaint and shall cause notice of the hearing to be given to the Secretary of the State and the State Elections Enforcement Commission. If such complaint is made subsequent to such referendum, it shall be brought within thirty days after such referendum to any judge of the Superior Court, in which the person shall set out the claimed errors of the election official, the claimed errors in the count or the claimed violations of said sections. Such judge shall forthwith order a hearing to be held upon such complaint, upon a day not more than five or less than three days from the making of such order, and shall cause notice of not less than three or more than five days to be given to any person who may be affected by the decision upon such hearing, to such election official, the Secretary of the State, the State Elections Enforcement Commission and to any other party or parties whom such judge deems proper parties to the hearing, of the time and place for the hearing upon such complaint. Such judge shall, on the day fixed for such hearing and without unnecessary delay, proceed to hear the parties. If sufficient reason is shown, such judge may order any voting tabulators to be unlocked or any ballot boxes to be opened and a recount of the votes cast, including absentee ballots, to be made. Such judge shall, if such judge finds any error in the rulings of the election official or any mistake in the count of the votes, certify the result of such judge's finding or decision to the Secretary of the State before the tenth day succeeding the conclusion of the hearing. Such judge may order a new referendum or a change in the existing referendum schedule. Such certificate of such judge's finding or decision shall be final and conclusive upon all questions relating to errors in the ruling of such election officials, to the correctness of such count, and, for the purposes of this section only, such claimed violations, and shall operate to correct the returns of the moderators or presiding officers, so as to conform to such finding or decision, except that this section shall not affect the right of appeal to the Supreme Court and it shall not prevent such judge from reserving such questions of law for the advice of the Supreme Court as provided in section 9-325. Such judge may, if necessary, issue a writ of mandamus, requiring the adverse party and those under such judge to deliver to the complainant the appurtenances of such office, and shall cause such judge's finding and decree to be entered on the records of the Superior Court in the proper judicial district.

ⁱⁱ Article Sixth of Amendment to The Constitution: Amendments to this constitution may be proposed by any member of the senate or house of representatives. An amendment so proposed, approved upon roll call by a yea vote of at least a majority, ~~but by less than three-fourths~~, of the total membership of each house, shall be published with the laws which may have been passed at the same session and be continued to the regular session of the general assembly elected at the next general election to be held on the Tuesday after the first Monday of November in an even-numbered year. An amendment so proposed, approved upon roll call by a yea vote ~~of at least three-fourths~~ of the total membership of each house, ~~or any amendment which, having been continued from the previous general assembly, is again approved~~ upon roll call by a yea vote ~~of at least a majority~~ of the total membership of each house, shall, by the secretary of the state, be transmitted to the town clerk in each town in the state, whose duty it shall be to present the same to the electors thereof for their consideration at the next general election to be held on the Tuesday after the first Monday of November in an even-numbered year. If it shall appear, in a manner to be provided by law, that a majority of the electors present and voting on such amendment at such election shall have approved such amendment, the same shall be valid, to all intents and purposes, as a part of this constitution. Electors voting by absentee ballot under the provisions of the statutes shall be considered to be present and voting.

iii Sec. 2-18. Form of bills amending statutes and resolutions amending Constitution; ballot designation of proposed constitutional amendments. Each bill for a public act amending any statute, each special act amending any special act and each resolution proposing an amendment to any provision of the Constitution shall set forth in full the act or constitutional provision, or the section or subsection thereof, to be amended. Matter to be omitted or repealed shall be surrounded by brackets and new matter shall be indicated by underscoring or, where an electric magnetic tape typewriter or other electronic equipment or device is used, by capitalization or underscoring of all words in the manuscript bill and by underscoring, capitalization or italics in its printed form. Each resolution proposing an amendment to any provision of the Constitution shall also include the designation of such proposed amendment to be used on the voting tabulator ballots and absentee ballots in the event such amendment is approved by the General Assembly. Such designation shall be a question, commencing with the words "Shall the Constitution of the state be amended to" and ending with a statement of the intended objective addressed by the amendment. Nothing in this section shall preclude the General Assembly from adopting rules authorizing the introduction by members of bills, special acts or resolutions which set forth only a statement of purpose or of intent and do not set forth the statute or constitutional provision to be amended.

House Joint Resolution No. 59

Resolution Act No. 21-1

RESOLUTION APPROVING AN AMENDMENT TO THE STATE CONSTITUTION TO ALLOW FOR EARLY VOTING.

Resolved by this Assembly:

Section 1. WHEREAS, at the 2019 regular session of the General Assembly of the state of Connecticut, said General Assembly did approve, by at least a majority, but by less than three-fourths, of the total membership of each house, a resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State which amendment, in accordance with article sixth of the amendments to the Constitution, was published in the manner prescribed therein and continued to the present regular session of the General Assembly, and which resolution is as follows:

error / i.e

"Resolved by this Assembly:

Section 1. That the following be proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the State, which, when approved and adopted in the manner provided by the Constitution, shall, to all intents and purposes, become a part thereof:

Section 7 of article sixth of the Constitution is amended to read as follows:

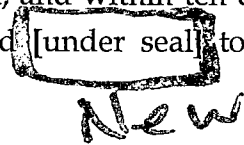

Sec. 7. The general assembly may provide by law for voting in the choice of any officer to be elected or upon any question to be voted on at an election by qualified voters of the state who are unable to appear at the polling place on the day of election because of absence from the city or town of which they are inhabitants or because of sickness or physical disability or because the tenets of their religion forbid secular activity. The general assembly may further provide by law for voting in person prior to the day of election in the choice of any officer to be elected or upon any question to be voted on at an election by qualified voters of the state.

Section 9 of article third of the Constitution is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 9. At all elections for members of the general assembly the presiding officers in the several towns shall [receive the votes of the electors, and] count and declare [them] the votes of the electors in open meeting. The presiding officers shall make and certify duplicate lists of the persons voted for, and of the number of votes for each. One list shall be delivered within three days to the town clerk, and within ten days after such meeting, the other shall be delivered [under seal] to the secretary of the state.

Section 4 of article fourth of the Constitution is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 4. [At the meetings of the electors in the respective towns held quadrennially as herein provided for the election of state officers, the presiding officers shall receive the votes and shall count and declare the same in the presence of the electors] The votes at the election of state officers shall be counted and declared in open meeting by the presiding officers in the several towns. The presiding officers shall make and certify duplicate lists of the persons voted for, and of the number of votes for each. One list shall be delivered within three days to the town clerk, and within ten days after such meeting, the other shall be delivered [under seal] to the secretary of the state. The votes so delivered shall be counted, canvassed and declared by the treasurer, secretary, and comptroller, within the month of November. The vote for treasurer shall be counted, canvassed and declared by the secretary and comptroller only; the vote for secretary shall be counted, canvassed and declared by the treasurer and comptroller only; and the vote for comptroller shall be counted, canvassed and declared by the treasurer and secretary only. A fair list of the persons and number of votes given for each, together with the returns of the presiding officers, shall be, by the treasurer, secretary and comptroller, made and laid before the general assembly, then next to be held, on the first day of the session thereof. In the election of governor, lieutenant-governor, secretary, treasurer, comptroller and attorney general, the person found upon the count by the treasurer, secretary and comptroller in the manner herein provided, to be made and announced before December fifteenth of the year of the election, to have received the greatest number of votes for each of such offices, respectively, shall be elected thereto; provided, if the election of any of them shall be contested as provided by statute, and if such a contest shall proceed to final judgment, the person found by the court to have received the greatest number of votes shall be elected. If two or more persons shall be found upon the count of the treasurer, secretary and comptroller to have received an equal and the greatest number of votes for any of said offices, and the election is not contested, the general assembly on the second day of its session shall hold a joint convention of both houses, at which, without debate, a ballot shall be taken to choose such officer from those persons who received such a vote; and the balloting shall continue on that or subsequent days until one of such persons is chosen by a majority vote of those present and voting. The general assembly shall have power to enact laws regulating and prescribing the order and manner of voting for such officers. The general assembly shall by law prescribe the manner in which all questions concerning the election of a governor or lieutenant-governor shall be determined.

NEW

House Joint Resolution No. 59

RESOLVED: That the foregoing proposed amendment to the Constitution be continued to the next session of the General Assembly elected at the general election to be held on November 3, 2020, and published with the laws passed at the present session, or be presented to the electors at the general election to be held on November 3, 2020, whichever the case may be, according to article sixth of the amendments to the Constitution. The designation of said proposed amendment to be used on the ballots at such election shall be "Shall the Constitution of the State be amended to permit the General Assembly to provide for early voting?"

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THIS ASSEMBLY: That the said amendment so proposed is approved and that it be presented to the electors at the general election to be held on November 8, 2022.

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE RESEARCH
PUBLIC ACT SUMMARY

RA 21-1—HJ 59

Government Administration and Elections Committee

RESOLUTION APPROVING AN AMENDMENT TO THE STATE CONSTITUTION TO ALLOW FOR EARLY VOTING

SUMMARY: This resolution proposes a constitutional amendment to authorize the General Assembly to provide by law for in-person, early voting before an election or referendum. It also removes the requirement that a duplicate list of election results for state officers and state legislators, which under the constitution must be sent to the secretary of the state within 10 days after the election, be submitted under seal (see BACKGROUND).

The ballot designation to be used when the amendment is presented at the general election is: "Shall the Constitution of the State be amended to permit the General Assembly to provide for early voting?"

EFFECTIVE DATE: The resolution will appear on the 2022 general election ballot. If a majority of those voting on the amendment in the general election approves it, the amendment will become part of the state constitution.

CURRENT CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISIONS

The state constitution sets the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November in specified years as the day of election for legislative and statewide offices. It currently requires election officials to receive and declare votes on this day to elect state legislators and state officers, with one exception. (The exception authorizes the General Assembly to pass a law allowing electors to cast their votes by absentee ballot for specified reasons (e.g., illness or physical disability).)

If passed, the resolution would authorize the General Assembly to provide by law for in-person, early voting before an election or referendum. To effectuate this, it eliminates the requirement that election officials receive and declare votes on the day of an election for state officers and state legislators.

BACKGROUND

Duplicate List

By law, after an election, moderators generally must send a duplicate list of election results to the secretary of the state (1) electronically within 48 hours and (2) under seal within three days (CGS § 9-314). For the 2020 state election and any election, primary, or referendum held from June 23, 2021, through November 2, 2021, the law extends these deadlines to 96 hours for the electronic submission and five days for the sealed submission (PA 20-3, July Special Session (§ 14), as amended by PA 21-2, June Special Session (§ 142)).

Senate Joint Resolution No. 14

Senate, April 15, 2019

The Committee on Government Administration and Elections reported through SEN. FLEXER of the 29th Dist., Chairperson of the Committee on the part of the Senate, that the joint resolution ought to be adopted.

RESOLUTION PROPOSING A STATE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO PERMIT EARLY VOTING.

Resolved by this Assembly:

1 Section 1. That the following be proposed as an amendment to the 2 Constitution of the State, which, when approved and adopted in the 3 manner provided by the Constitution, shall, to all intents and 4 purposes, become a part thereof:

5 Section 7 of article sixth of the Constitution is amended to read as 6 follows:

7 Sec. 7. a. The general assembly may provide by law for voting in the 8 choice of any officer to be elected or upon any question to be voted on 9 at an election by qualified voters of the state who are unable to appear
10 at the polling place on the day of election because of absence from the 11 city or town of which they are inhabitants or because of sickness or 12 physical disability or because the tenets of their religion forbid secular 13 activity.
