INFORMATION CONCERNING CONNECTICUT ORDERS OF PROTECTION
EXTENSIONS, VIOLATIONS AND CRIMINAL TRESPASS

This order may be extended by the court beyond six months. In accordance with C.G.S. § 53a-107, entering or remaining in a building or any other premises in violation of this order constitutes criminal trespass in the first degree. This is a criminal offense punishable by a term of imprisonment of not more than one year, a fine of not more than two thousand dollars, or both. Additionally, in accordance with C.G.S. § 53a-223b, any violation of this order constitutes a criminal violation of a restraining order which is punishable by a term of imprisonment of not more than five years, a fine of not more than five thousand dollars or both.

FIREARMS RESTRICTIONS

If you are subject to a restraining or protective order involving the use, attempted use or threatened use of physical force against another person:

1. You are not eligible to receive a permit or eligibility certificate allowing you to carry a pistol or revolver (C.G.S. §§ 29-28(b)(6), 29-36(b)(6));
2. Any permit or eligibility certificate which you now hold shall be revoked and you must surrender such permit or eligibility certificate to the authority that issued it within five days of being notified that it has been revoked. If you do not surrender such permit or eligibility certificate as required, you will be guilty of a class C misdemeanor which is punishable by a fine of up to five hundred dollars or imprisonment of up to three months or both (C.G.S. §§ 29-32 and 29-36i);
3. You must transfer all pistols, revolvers, and other firearms which you possess to a person who is eligible to possess them or surrender them to the Commissioner of Public Safety within two business days of becoming subject to such order. If you do not do so, you will be subject to a fine of up to five thousand dollars or imprisonment of up to five years or both (C.G.S. §§ 29-36k, 29-33); and
4. If you possess any pistol or revolver, or any firearm or electronic defense weapon, after you have had notice of such order and an opportunity to be heard, you will be guilty of criminal possession of a pistol or revolver or criminal possession of a firearm or electronic defense weapon. These crimes are class D felonies which are punishable by a fine of up to five thousand dollars or imprisonment of up to five years or both (C.G.S. §§ 53a-217(a)(3) and 53a-217c(5)). Two years of the sentence imposed for criminal possession of a firearm or electronic defense weapon may not be suspended or reduced by the court (C.G.S. § 53a-217(b)).

NATIONWIDE ENFORCEMENT OF RESTRAINING ORDERS AFTER HEARING

This court had jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter when it issued this protection order. Respondent was afforded both notice and opportunity to be heard in the hearing that gave rise to this order. Pursuant to the Violence Against Women Act of 1994, 18 USC 2265, this order is valid and enforceable in all fifty states, any territory or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico and Tribal Lands.

STATEMENT OF CONDITIONS FROM WHICH YOU SEEK RELIEF

I, the undersigned, duly depose and say that I am the Applicant in this matter and state as follows:

Few weeks ago, he tried to choke me when we were arguing. I was very scared. And in the late days of same week, he hit me with his fist on my face and body. The hit left bruises on my face and body. He also dragged me in kitchen. He broke all the phones in the house to prevent me to call help.

One Tuesday, Oct 2, my husband called me at work and wanted me to come home to talk. He said he could not do any thing, could not stand the situation like this (we are separated). He call me few times, told me I have to go home to talk otherwise I would regret. I was scared, and told him I can not go because I have work to do. The last phone call I received, he was outside the house waiting for me. Then I received an email from my friend at Yale saying worry about me, wanted me to call him. He called his ex-wife and asked her if she would help to take care of my 2 children. She was very afraid of this and went to my friend to ask for help. I was scared and I have stayed at a hotel while my kids were at home with my husband.

STATEMENT CONCERNING TEMPORARY CUSTODY OF CHILDREN

"X" one of the following:

I am not seeking temporary custody of any minor child(ren) in this matter.

I am seeking temporary custody of my minor child(ren) in this matter.

(Complete an Affidavit Concerning Children, form JD-FM-164, and bring it to the clerk along with this form and your completed Application For Relief From Abuse, form JD-FM-137.)

I hereby certify that the foregoing statements are true to the best of my knowledge and belief.
