Mark Lubus
Assistant Building Official
Town of Redding Building Department
Redding, CT 06875

Dear Mr. Lubus,

This letter serves as a written warning as a result of your conduct on the afternoon of July 9th, 2019.

Your behavior at that time, including, raising your voice, behaving belligerently towards a supervisor (the First Selectman) both verbally and physically, and lastly, refusing to cease such behavior upon being told to do so, is insubordinate and is inconsistent with the conduct expected of an employee of the Town of Redding.

A repeat of this behavior shall result in further action, up to and including termination.

Under the Connecticut Personnel Files Law, you may submit a written statement explaining your position if you disagree with the information in this letter. Your written statement will be placed in your personnel file, but the disciplinary action described in this letter will not be changed.

Julia Pemberton
First Selectman
