		Individual stated that he was at the FBI Field Office in Meriden earlier today at approximal 1400 hours. Inman related that an individual by the name of "Grady" at the FBI instructed him to come to the Brookfield Police Department to have his court paperwork documented. I explained to Inman that there was no way I could verify the documents he had in his and at this time but that the court would have the record. He wanted it relayed that he filed two motion of contempt and a subpoena at approx. 1200 hours. He also stated that he was served custody paperwork at 1600 hours.
		A Google search revealed a Charles Grady who worked for the FBI in Connecticut. I made contact with Grady from the FBI New Haven office. He stated that he had never spoken to anyone by the name of Wesley Inman.
